

The Parishes of St Edmund, Allestree and St Matthew, Darley Abbey
19th Sunday after Trinity - Harvest at St Matthew's - 10th October 2021

Welcome to worship today. At St Edmund's we continue to ask that face coverings are worn for the services in church; at St Matthew's, which is larger, we recommend you wear them. Social distancing remains important - please be aware of your neighbours and give them the space they require. Communion will be in one kind only. It really helps with distribution of communion if you can sit in alternate pews please.

Julie's birthday party - with regret we have decided to cancel Julie's party on Saturday 30th October. So many people have said they want to come, but we do not feel we can do it safely in the current climate. We will wait until the Spring and have a celebration then - she will remain in her fifties! Some have asked what she would like as a present but, please, no more books. We will be setting up a fundraising page for two charities over the next few days - please ask if you would like details.

The Office is open on from 9.30 to 12.30 on Monday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday this week, from 12 noon on Tuesday. The church website is being regularly updated - www.stedsandstmatts.co.uk - and we are using Facebook @stmatthewsdarleyabbey and @stedmundsallestree. You can make a financial donation to either church at any service or through the website - we are very grateful for your support.
